

Volunteer Opportunity

Are you interested in impacting a child's life?

We are looking for individuals who are exciting and full of new ideas. Our opportunity will create new horizons for children with special needs. This opportunity offers an excellent experience to enhance your resume and reference.

About Thrive: THRIVE is a community aide-facilitated program of Ability4Good. Our mission is to create new horizons for children with special needs and their families. We develop social networks, offer services and develop caring communities for those that are most vulnerable so that they can live with dignity, achieving their goals and aspirations. The THRIVE program is for children of different capacities from 4 to 17 years old. This program provides support and enables children with special needs to participate in recreational, social, and community activities with other children.

Requirements:

- Volunteers must have a positive attitude, and be able to engage with children with special needs.
- They must also be able to commit to only one day per week (1.5 hrs).
- Please provide a current resume, as well as clear police check and vulnerable sector check.

Location:

Ability4Good
Suite 302, 327 – 41 Ave NE,
Calgary AB, T2E 2N4
